Protectors of the Sacred Objects of Sirius

Date

1988

Primary Maker

K. Lee Manuel

Materials

Goose feathers, lamb suede, and paint

Description

This collar is composed of several layers of feathers. They are meticulously aligned in a circle, with a braided cord to hold them together. One row of feathers is painted very precisely with colorful images of Japanesque warriors and fantastic beasts. Below the painted feathers are undecorated plumes.
