

Basic Detail Report

Jack Zucker Commemorative Medal (from the "Commemorative Medals" series)

Date

ca. 1972

Primary Maker

Donald Paul Tompkins

Materials

Sterling silver and found objects

Description

An American sterling silver, found objects and photo etching "commemorative medal" pendant, commemorating Jack Zucker, a Philadelphia union organizer and American intellectual, circa 1972, made by Donald Paul Tompkins (American, b. 1922, d. 1982), the grid like pendant with inscription reflecting Zucker's words "Senator McCarthy, I have more patriotism in my little finger than you have in your whole body," as well as etched portrait of Zucker, an American Federation of Labor pin and a cast charm of a dancing girl

Dimensions

3 1/4 × 4 1/2 × 1/2 in. (8.3 × 11.4 × 1.3 cm)