Description

Thirty-five ceramic figurines together make up this piece.
